

Company Profile

Since its inception in 1997, Indy Translations, LLC, an Indiana-based company, has been providing a comprehensive array of language services to companies of all sizes across the globe in over 80 languages. In addition to our translation and localization services, we provide consecutive and simultaneous interpretation for conferences, hospitals, courtrooms, as well as telephonic and video interpreting anywhere in the world. Our multimedia services include foreign language copywriting, desktop publishing, subtitling, dubbing, foreign voice talent and voice-overs. Our language instruction division, Indy Language Center, specializes in public, private and corporate foreign language and English as a Second Language instruction in dozens of languages either at our classrooms or at our clients' location. The key to our success has been in surrounding ourselves with the best team of specialized language professionals worldwide to ensure every project is as good as it can be.
